

Title and brief description 20 words

‘Exploring Real World Learning Through Company Aside’

This is a case study of the ‘Company Aside’ initiative at Derby Theatre focussed on its efficacy as a learning model

Type

Conference presentation

Year

July 2014

Venues:

UoD Buxton

URL :

Number and names of additional authors

2 – Caroline Barth, Fiona Shelton

Additional information 100 words

The presentation was part of The University of Derby’s Learning, Teaching and Assessment conference on Pedagogies for The Future. It is an evaluative case study of the ‘Company Aside’ initiative as a learning model. The research was drawn from focus group discussions and questionnaires with students and professionals engaged on the programme, identifying key challenges, successes and considerations for further development.